RareBooksClub. Paperback. Book Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. Paperback. 42 pages. LC Number: KF26 A653 2006c OCLC Number: (OCO)138390828 Subject: Sports for people with mental disabilities -- United States. Excerpt: . . . ilities. When the Senate returns after the July 4 break, based upon this hearing and other information that we have obtained, I plan to introduce, with others, legislation focusing on the health of people with disabilities with a special emphasis on wellness and disease prevention. As we will see vividly displayed at the Special Olympics this week, people with intellectual disabilities are in most ways just like the rest of us. They too aspire to the American dream of independence, self-determination, full participation as productive members of our society. We have a powerful interest in helping them to succeed because America is better and fairer and richer when we make full use of the abilities of all of our citizens. So we are fortunate to have an exceptional panel of witnesses this afternoon. Well have two panels, the first panel and the second panel. Timothy Shriver has been chairman of the Special Olympics for the last 9 years. In that capacity he serves nearly 2 million Special Olympics athletes and their families in more than 150 countries. Dr. Gerberding, Julie Gerberding, is director of the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention and a tremendous leader in the field of wellness and disease prevention. Dr. Antonia Novello, the former United States Surgeon General and now Commissioner of the New York State Health Department. That will be our first panel. I will introduce our second panel when they come up. Although she is not testifying today in an official sense, she has testified by being the first person who invited some kids with special intellectual disabilities...
