By David Boyd

Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from A History, Greeley and the Union Colony of Colorado I proposed to unite with the proper persons in establishing a colony in Colorado Territory. N. C. Meeker in The New York Tribune. Mr. Nathan C. Meeker for many years connected with The Tribune, as he expects to be many more, proposes to plant a colony in an admirable location discovered by him on his recent trip to the Rocky Mountains. Knowing Mr. Meeker, (who is a practical farmer), to be eminently qualified for leading and founding such a colony, we advise temperate, moral, industrious and intelligent persons who would like to make homes in the Far West to read his letter herewith published, and should his plans suit them, write to him, not us, on the subject. - Horace Greeley, in same issue of The Tribune. Two classes of events are presented in our colony life, one class is connected with the affairs of individuals, which, even by those concerned, are quickly forgotten. It is doubtful if a history of these days, as affecting individuals,...
