

Abnormal Footprint (Paperback)

By Luis Perez

AUTHORHOUSE, United States, 2004. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . This moving and humane story is expressed in the language of poetry through the life of a man imprisoned for over three decades. This booklet takes us on a journey through Cuba, Mexico, Puerto Rico, and the USA - from happy and free childhood to incarcerated manhood. Luis Perez's trials and tribulations, his joys and confusions are expressed in the language of a man who has never given up hope. He is a man who feels passionately about the social, moral, environmental and human rights. His poetry reveals that he cares for our global environment and will strike a thought-provoking cord in the hearts of many a reader. His mother, a simple and natural Cuban; his father, a soldier, in the Cuban army; Luis Perez was the eldest son of a family in turmoil during the Cuban revolution of 1959. As a young and confused teenager, he arrived in the United States.
