Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from Young Folk s Handbook The After School Club is a national organization of young folks, meeting in the homes of its members, but connected by correspondence and mutual suggestion with its central headquarters in Philadelphia. It includes young people of every age, but they are graded by years into certain inner circles, so that each group has its own activities and interests. The purpose of The After School Club is to bring to the attention of young people and their parents the whole range of wholesome play and work and so to strengthen the resources of each home as to make it the place where this play and work shall be carried on. Whatever can make the home more lovely is within the interest of the Club. Somebody has called it a correspondence recreation center. Certainly if every home were a good recreation center, we should hardly need any other. The first part of the handbook of The After School Club is devoted to the play and occupations of little children up to about the time when they have been a year in school, that is, up to about the end of the sixth year. It is naturally chiefly for parents. It is especially intended to show how you can make enjoyable and profitable the first half-dozen years of your child s life, - the years when his education depends almost entirely upon yourselves. In these years, before school and companions have influence, the foundation-laying of the home is of incomparable value. The After School Club is just a home club of which you and the children are members together. The real object of The...
