Excerpt from The Irrigation Age, Vol. 1 It will, moreover, be ready at all times to expose frauds, and will freely criticize moves made on the part of government officials which are not in keeping with good business rules and integrity. It is the intention of the editor to fully exploit during the coming year many mistakes which have been made and are now forming which would throw discredit on the Geological Survey and the Reclamation Service. Information which will assist us in improving this paper in a news or editorial way, also information concerning the interference of private rights by the Reclamation Service, will be thankfully received. The following notice, sent in by the St. Louis correspondent of a well-known implement paper, illustrates how a body of intelligent men may regularly be misled and induced to contribute funds to an organization such as the National Irrigation Association, which has been repudiated by the National Irrigation Congress: The regular monthly meeting of the Implement and Vehicle Board of Trade for October was held this evening in the...
