The Peppertree Press. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 214 pages. Dimensions: 8.9in. x 5.9in. x 0.7in. Praise for Senior Prom We have been fortunate to have his unique views of life played out in his columns. . . while gaining a devoted following. His gentle humor and (writing) style masks one of the sharpest minds we have ever met. - From an editorial in the Anna Maria Island SUN, 02111 Weve been saving your columns to re-read when life gets too serious. -Betty and Duke Haas I find myself laughing out loud. It feels great! - June Cobb Therell never be another column like yours! - Jeanie Akers Your columns greet me with joy and laughter! You are amazing! - Jill Rodd I smiled, then I laughed out loud at your style of writing and your wonderful gift of humor. Thank you for making my day. - Rev. Donald E. Baier Your Column is the first thing I turn to when the SUN comes out! - Birgit Quam, Anna Maria Island, FL. What you are about to read may cause extreme heebee-jeebees. Its true that my writing style may be slightly off the wall, so be on guard for a few surprise departures from the norm. It began with TIME magazines distinctive style up until the 1960s or so, when it discarded that intoxicating personality for some unclear reason. As an editorial staffer on TIME from 1938 to 1951, I loved the fun readable writing and editing that included: our own madeup words that sounded O. K. in making a point, but were nowhere to be found in any acceptable dictionary; purposely misspelled words, such as proolly for probably; use of the ampersand (and) wherever it fits in comfortably, as in man and wife, black and white, cats and...
