Taylor Francis Inc, United States, 2004. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Keep up with management issues in the rapidly changing Islamic business world! Islam and Business: Cross-Cultural and Cross-National Perspectives reviews important changes, cross-cultural differences, and management issues in the turbulent Islamic business environment. With the shift from government ownership of companies and commodities toward more open markets and the product/service diversification that this change brings, the need to understand how business is done in these countries is more vital than ever before. The research in this book will help you understand the impact of Westernization upon business practices in Islamic nations. With contributions from experts on four Islamic business environments (Turkey, Jordan, Egypt, and Lebanon), this book: * provides a framework to guide corporations in policy and strategic planning * examines the impact of Western reforms on selected Islamic business sectors * discusses the training, leadership, and management development needs of companies doing business in or with Islamic nations Section 1: Business in Turkey presents: * a framework for corporate policy making and for strategic planning activities * an assessment of what can cause strategic alliances to succeed or to fail--illustrated by a case study of the relationship between Turkish Airlines and the Qualifyer Group--this study considers the question in terms of goals, partner selection, alliance management, and areas of cooperation * an examination of value-at-risk (VaR) models that can be used to compute market risk for financial institutions--with a study of crisis scenarios as applied to the four largest Turkish banks Section 2: Business in Jordan presents: * a study of the impact Westernization has had on the efficiency of Jordanian commercial banks * an examination of current practices and procedures for management training and development (MTD) needs in public...
