Eight teenage boys watch in horror as their jungle village is burned to the ground and everyone in it are killed. The boys swear an oath between them to find the mercenaries responsible and kill them. Years later the boys, now young men, find this difficult to accomplish as there appears to be government involvement in the clandestine activities of the mercenaries. The search goes on until a mysterious organization with the same aims, agrees to help them. This organization recruits a young foreign worker with a strange illness to help in their quest. With this help, the eight are able to locate an area used by the mercenaries to hide between their bloody raids which they are still carrying out with government approval and money. Now it is up to all concerned to set a trap for the raiders.
