Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 280 x 216 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Successful football teams become long term successful programs because there is a plan to draw the athletes in the building to want to become part of the team. The plan also has a means for the parents to contribute to the program's success. Coach Bill Renner shares with you 7 simple tips to implement in your football program and build a program that athletes in your school will want to become part of and parents will be your best asset. By implementing these 7 tips the athletes will see a way for them to get better, have an opportunity to contribute, receive recognition of their contributions, feel important as a member of the team and have consistent encouragement from the coaches. The coaches will get a player that is committed to the team, loyal to his teammates, respectful to his coaches and appreciative of the football program. In one of his 7 tips Coach Renner details how to give your parents a positive venue to support the players and coaches in practical ways that a good program needs. Coach Renner has 30-years of coaching high school football and 23-years as a head coach. He developed these tips as a head coach who took over losing programs and transformed them into thinking, acting, working and becoming winners. These are tips that have been used to successfully increase player participation, player improvement, parent support, administration support and to achieve long term success. If implemented they will have the same results for your program.
